

"The world has really changed over the years"

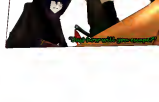

"Especially Pandragora, once the most powerful of all countries. It sometimes still refuses to believe it isn't anymore"

"Or perhaps they know, as they still slowly but surely build their armies"

"While at the borders of their old country lies the ancient city of SEOK CHI SEUNG"

"A great magnificent wall that protects them from the outside world"

Woohoooo, kkomhan Gengosa? (Careful General)

Like how you are careful with my men?

ah, byungsoo Gengosa!

They just started chasing me

While I was just having a stroll in this beautiful city

Well, I'm sure they've got their reasons, right boys?

Aside from your already suspicious appearance

When I was young I had an unfortunate accident that turned me blind, people think it's freaky when I talk to them without looking them in the eye

Dadook son, Gengosa! (He's a thief General)

It's sounds like you have more reasons to avert your eyes, stranger

KODAMAI!

Stop!
